Useful information

Seat reservations

Reserving a seat is advisable at any time and reservations are free when buying a ticket for travel on First Great Western high speed services and in most cases can be made up to two hours before the train leaves its starting station.

On-board catering

Many of our services have a Buffet or trolley service, offering a wide range of high quality food and drink throughout your journey. Some services also have a Travelling Chef on board, who can tempt you with a tasty selection of light meals and snacks, freshly cooked to order at great value prices.

Weekend First

Weekend First is available on many services on Saturdays, Sundays and Bank Holidays. Customers with Standard Open, Saver or SuperSaver tickets can enjoy the luxury of First Class travel, with complimentary refreshments from the Buffet, by paying a supplement of just £10 on board.

Buy before you board

If you board one of our trains without a ticket, at a station where ticket buying services are available, you will be charged the full Open Single or Return fare for your journey and will not be able to benefit from any discounted fares or Railcard discounts. However, if the ticket office is closed, you may buy your ticket on the train.

If you have a Railcard, always carry it with you when you travel. You must show a valid ticket and valid Railcard when asked by rail staff. If you do not, you will have to pay the full fare and will not be able to benefit from any discount.

Customer Assistance

You can book help in advance if you have mobility problems or other special needs by telephoning 0845 197 1329. Open daily from 07.00 to 22.00.

Fares Fair

You must have a valid ticket to travel on First Great Western trains and we will prosecute anyone who deliberately avoids paying their fare.

Useful information

Seat reservations

Reserving a seat is advisable at any time and reservations are free when buying a ticket for travel on First Great Western high speed services and in most cases can be made up to two hours before the train leaves its starting station.

On-board catering

Many of our services have a Buffet or trolley service, offering a wide range of high quality food and drink throughout your journey. Some services also have a Travelling Chef on board, who can tempt you with a tasty selection of light meals and snacks, freshly cooked to order at great value prices.

Weekend First

Weekend First is available on many services on Saturdays, Sundays and Bank Holidays. Customers with Standard Open, Saver or SuperSaver tickets can enjoy the luxury of First Class travel, with complimentary refreshments from the Buffet, by paying a supplement of just £10 on board.

Buy before you board

If you board one of our trains without a ticket, at a station where ticket buying services are available, you will be charged the full Open Single or Return fare for your journey and will not be able to benefit from any discounted fares or Railcard discounts. However, if the ticket office is closed, you may buy your ticket on the train.

If you have a Railcard, always carry it with you when you travel. You must show a valid ticket and valid Railcard when asked by rail staff. If you do not, you will have to pay the full fare and will not be able to benefit from any discount.

Customer Assistance

You can book help in advance if you have mobility problems or other special needs by telephoning 0845 197 1329. Open daily from 07.00 to 22.00.

Fares Fair

You must have a valid ticket to travel on First Great Western trains and we will prosecute anyone who deliberately avoids paying their fare.
