Things to do, places to see...

Great Malvern

Situated on the eastern slopes of the scenic Malvern Hills today the town has become a health (mineral springs) and holiday resort. The well waters of Malvern are many, finding them makes an interesting treasure hunt!

Music and theatre are Malvern traditions. The Malvern Theatres Complex overlooks Priory Park hosting a wide range of plays, films, and concerts; George Bernard Shaw co-founded the original theatre here.

The priory church of Great Malvern dating from 1085 is a cathedral-sized wonder of English medieval architecture. It has massive Norman pillars, a huge famous east window, misericord seats carved with lively and entertaining scenes, and tiles in many designs, manufactured by the monks.

Malvern's other medieval jewel is the Abbey Gateway, which is home to it's Museum filled with exhibits of local history and geology.

There are intriguing insights into the era of the water cure and items from Malvern's famous defence research establishment, where historic wartime radar was developed.

Malvern is an unconventional shopping centre, thanks to it's hillside setting. There are bookshops, antique dealers, quality furniture, fashion and food. The Malvern lifestyle attracts artists and craftspeople, so you will find some delightful works on show and in shops and galleries. But explore, shop around. There is much to find.

Worcester

An 11th-century cathedral city with a wealth of history. The cathedral in its magnificent riverside setting provides a backdrop to a city that contrasts the half-timbered 'Tudor House' in Friar Street, the Commandery with its Great Hall and the Guildhall with its elaborate facade, believed to be the finest example of early Georgian architecture in the country, with the 21st century Crowngate Development.

From the bus station a short escalator ride whisks us up into what is arguably one of the Midlands' most elegant shopping malls. Here you may browse at leisure or for the inquisitive a set of brass plaques at strategic locations puts you in the picture of 'Olde Worlde Worcester'.

Home to world famous Royal Worcester Spode and the Dyson Perrins Museum of fine porcelain, nearby the Commandery housed the Royalist Headquarters during the Battle of Worcester.

Take a leisurely journey down the river on one of the pleasure cruisers or search out one of the many cafes and bistros for an excellent lunch. Enjoy fine ales brewed on the premises at Worcester's very own brewery. A visit to remember with something for everyone.

Ledbury

A thriving rural market town situated south of the Malvern Hills, Ledbury has a large number of timber framed buildings, one of the most outstanding buildings, the 17th century black & white Market House, which had originally served as a grain store dominates the town centre.

Other notable buildings are found in nearby Church Lane, a much photographed cobbled medieval street containing the Heritage centre, Butchers Row Folk Museum and the Painted Room (containing sixteenth century frescoes) leading to a fine Parish Church.

With hops and orchards, vineyards and country pubs, the area also includes the magnificent, mock-gothic Eastnor Castle. A major visitor attraction with mediaeval armour, fine art and tapestries, the grounds include a Knight's Maze, Children's Playground and lakeside and woodlands walks.
